The Speakers

Dr Ken Ruiz, Consultant Anaesthetist

Dr Ruiz is a consultant anaesthetist at Rotherham District Hospital. He is also a past president of ADA. He has worked for many years in the field of dental anaesthetics and sedation, and has developed a propofol sedation service in the local community

Learning outcomes:

- ≈ Development of a IV propofol sedation service in primary care
- ≈ Patient selection
- ≈ The equipment and training required

Dr Nigel Robb, Honorary Consultant in Restorative Dentistry

Dr Robb has followed an academic career with posts in Newcastle upon Tyne, Glasgow, Cardiff and now Bristol; he is responsible for teaching sedation to both undergraduates and post graduates. He runs the clinical sedation service at Bristol Dental Hospital. He too is a former president of ADA

Learning outcomes:

- ≈ The versatility of midazolam for IV sedation in dentistry
- ≈ Evidence for its' success in treating anxious patients

Dr Rachel Pollard, Consultant Anaesthetist, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust

Dr Pollard is a consultant anaesthetist at Oxford hospitals. She has been actively involved in general anaesthesia and sedation for dentistry for many years. She is giving a joint presentation with Dr Neil Oastler and she is currently a member of ADA council

Dr Neil Oastler, Specialist lead clinician, Oxford salaried primary dental care

Neil is a dentist who has worked in general practice and the salaried dental service. He is also a member of BAOS. He regularly provides care for patients with special needs

Drs Pollard and Oastler are presenting a paper on their assessment protocol for patients with special needs and which sedation technique or GA is most appropriate.
